

How to Create Mission Moments that Drive Revenue

Melissa Macyauski & Kacie Sassano

Get To Know Us

Kacie Sassano

For over almost two decades Kacie has focused her career on assisting nonprofits to share their mission and story with the public in a compelling and engaging manner. From national organizations, to world class museums, and K-12 schools, Kacie has worked to help organizations see their value and worthiness in their communities and beyond. Her work has resulted in significant fundraising increases, minimized deficits, growing enrollments and impactful marketing plans.

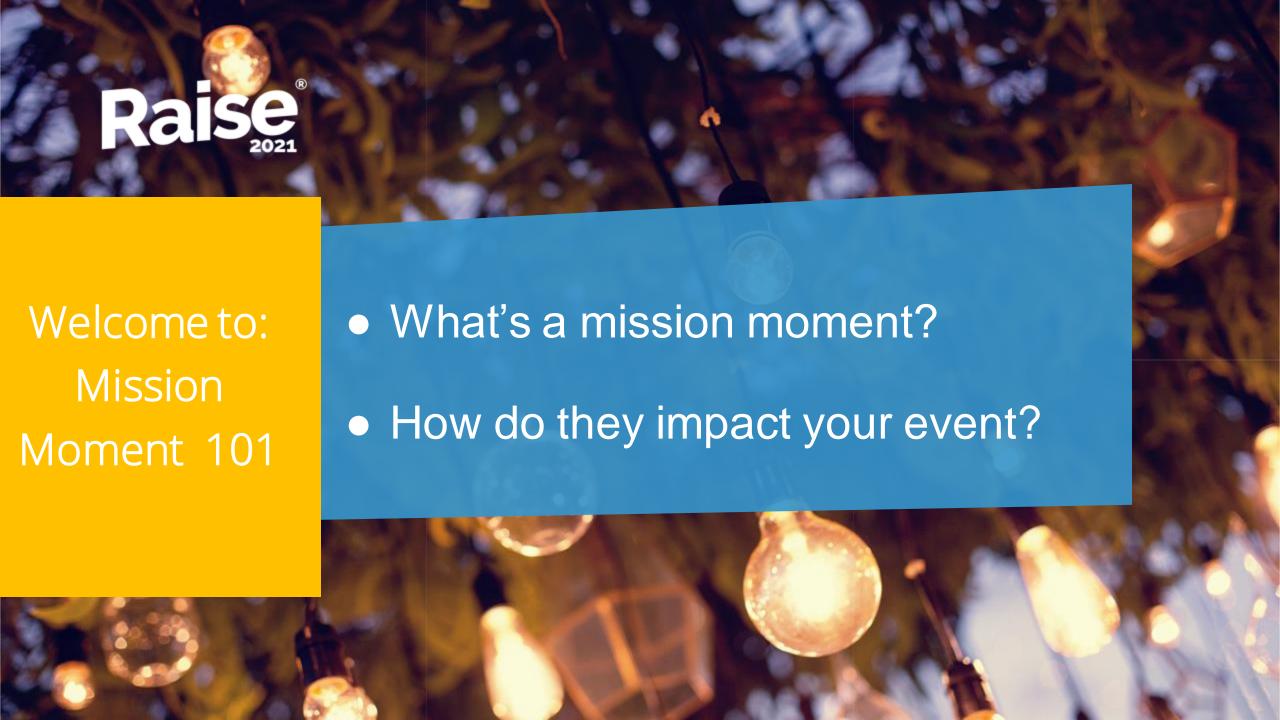

Melissa Macyauski

Melissa has dedicated over ten years to organizing successful fundraising events across multiple markets in both national and local nonprofits. Her attention to detail and strategic messaging ensure that donors see the impact of their gift throughout the event experience. The results of her dedication has led to increased revenue, lowered expenses and an event experience that encourages donors to dive deeper within the organization for a lasting mission based relationship.

Mission Moments Drive Revenue

- Set the stage or the table
- Make sure guests "meet the mission" before they even enter the door
- Delivery is the key

Mission Driven Marketing

- Create a polished and playful theme
- Carry mission throughout big & small details
- Most importantly make the ask

Go Serve. Go Lead. Go Inspire Hope.

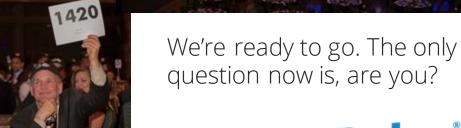

Marketing materials

GO hats & student speech

GO dartboards

"There are 330 other students just like me that want to GO and are ready to GO."

Take it Virtual

- Pivoting like a pro
- Meet donors where they are
- Remind guests why they love the event & your organization
- Find new opportunities

"We will lead lives of service and leadership. And we will be change makers in our community, city and country."
